Full	Kin	Dickins Max	Two estranged sisters meet after twenty years. In a remote cottage over a single night they bury the hatchet. As their dying father lies in the room next door they're forced to confront who they were and who they've become. How can a sibling be both your best friend and your worst enemy? Can you forgive the past when you can't even agree what it looks like? Black comedy.	FL	15609

Peter presents another side to one of the world's most beloved tales. As Peter enters adulthood he struggled to separate himself from what he calls "that terrible masteroiece" and begins to spiral into depression. Will he succeed in overcoming the demons of his past, or do happy endings only exist in fairy stories?	FL	15446

One Act	Dying as an Art	Spark David	Sylvia Plath, brilliant young American poet, is plagued by mental illness and subjected to harsh treatment. Her psychosis originated from the sudden death of her father when she was only eight years old. She treats this as a betrayal and, frustrated in her attempt to follow him by suicide, forms the ambition to re-create him through another.	GWtyp - D	14790

Polite conversation begins to turn more pointed as the woman comes to realise that her visitor is not the casual passer-by he originally purported to be. She herself is also the keeper of vital important secrets for many years . . . . . Finally and tragically she discovers that her visitor is less interest in what she may know than her ability to keep her knowledge to herself.	GWTyp-M	14780

Revue	Ask The Family	Brittney Lynn	wine and wisdom series number 6 Colin was made redundant and because of his age, is virtually unemployable. He whiles away his time feeding his obsession with TV .Son Jason, home from uni, lives in a world of his own. Wife Margaret, the only one earning a wage, has her yoga cancelled due to flooding and there is a power cut during which the family are faced with talking to each other. The consequences are dramatic. Large part of action takes place in candlelight during a blackout . Author's note: It's important to rely solely on candlelight and not use discreet stage lighting to add to the illumination. Suggested that a candleabra of 6, is put on a central low table..
