

SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT TROPHIES

EDITH FORBES TROPHY - SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT WINNERS
(Originally Mrs Charles Rowland Cup)

In memory of her many years as Secretary of Edinburgh District SCDA For 25 years Edith Forbes was the Edinburgh District Secretary and after her retirement she worked in S.C.D.A. H.Q. (at that time in Melville Street). She was the Administrative Officer for SCDA Summer Schools in St Andrews in the 1950s. Her friends in SCDA purchased a trophy to be awarded to the Runners Up in Edinburgh District One Act Play Festivals. Some years after Mrs Charles Rowland's death this trophy and the Edith Forbes Trophy were changed over and this trophy is now awarded to the Winners of the Festival.

SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT - MRS CHARLES ROWLAND CUP - RUNNERS UP
(This Trophy was originally for The Winning Team)

This cup was presented by the widow of the SCDA Office Bearer in the 1930s in memory of her husband. She kept a watchful eye on Festival entries and clubs and presented a Winners Cup for the Edinburgh District One Act Play Festivals. In her young days she was a member of the Merchant Maidens Drama Club – to be expanded and renamed The Mercators Drama Club in 1936.

Some years after her death this trophy and the Edith Forbes Trophy were changed over.

SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT - SCOTTISH LIFE AND CHARACTER
MARGARET ALLAN QUAICH

Margaret Allan was an enthusiast of amateur theatre and life-long supporter of SCDA. After her untimely death her club, 'The Mercators' presented in 1983 a Quaich to the team gaining the highest marks in the District Festival for a play depicting Scottish Life and Characters. Due to dwindling entries the trophy was repurposed from 2015 – to be for the HIGHEST MARKS IN ACTING

SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT - BEST MOMENT IN THEATRE
JOHN McINTYRE TROPHY

This Quaich was presented in memory of John McIntyre, who died in April 1993, by his widow Elsie. John was for many years a stalwart of Edinburgh People's Theatre, well loved on and off stage. One of his last and well loved performances was in James Scotland's The Merry Monks of Cambusdonald in the club's 1992 Festival Fringe production. The trophy is awarded to the team who, in the opinion of the Emergency Panel gave The Best Moment in Theatre.

SCDA EDINBURGH DISTRICT - BEST FIRST ENTRY

SADIE AITKEN SHIELD

The Edinburgh 1958 Shield given by Sadie Aitken for presentation to the Best First-Time Entrants in the SCDA (Edinburgh District) Annual Festival of One-Act Plays
Miss Sadie Aitken's love of and interest in SCDA continued until her death on January 4th1985. The Edinburgh District Secretary and South Eastern Division Secretary before World War II, she kept the local organisation in limbo until it was re-established in 1946. She worked in the Church of Scotland HQ until her appointment as Manager of the Gateway Theatre. In that theatre she provided a home for amateur drama courses and the Kirk Drama Federation Festivals.
